

PARTLY CLOUDY TODAY AND TOMORROW

Norwich

Bulletin

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, DEC. 30, 1920

The Bulletin

Norwich, Thursday, Dec. 30, 1920.

THE WEATHER.

Winds.

North of Sandy Hook—Fresh southwest and west winds, overcast weather Thursday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras—Moderate southwest winds, and partly overcast weather Thursday.

Conditions.

Pressure was high Wednesday over the southeastern states and low over practically all other regions east of the Mississippi. The weather was generally fair, killing frosts were reported Wednesday morning as far south as the Alabama coast and extreme northeast Florida and heavy frost at Tampa, Fla.

The outlook is for generally fair weather in the states east of the Mississippi river Thursday and Friday. The weather will be slightly warmer Thursday in the Atlantic states.

Forecast.

For Southern New England: Partly cloudy Thursday and Friday; somewhat warmer Thursday.

Observations in Norwich.

The Bulletin's observations show the following records reported from changes in temperature and barometric readings Wednesday:

	Ther. Bar.
7 A. M.	22 29.00
10 A. M.	24 29.00
1 P. M.	25 29.00
4 P. M.	25 29.00
Highest 25, lowest 22.

Comparisons.

Predictions for Wednesday: Fair. Wednesday's weather: As predicted; southwest wind.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES.

	Sun	High	Moon
	Rises.	Sets.	Water. Rises.
(Standard Time.)
Day	h. m.	p. m.	a. m. p. m.
1	7:14	4:25	6:51	7:31
2	7:15	4:26	7:45	8:42
3	7:16	4:27	8:39	9:53
4	7:17	4:28	9:33	10:58
5	7:18	4:29	10:27	11:58
6	7:19	4:30	11:21	12:58
7	7:20	4:31	12:15	1:58
8	7:21	4:32	1:09	2:58
9	7:22	4:33	2:03	3:58
10	7:23	4:34	2:57	4:58

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE.

Thomas Platt has returned to Providence, R. I., after spending a few days at the home of his mother on Hickory street.

Charles Dennis has returned to Hartford after spending a few days at the home of his parents on North Main street.

Montclair Fisher has returned after spending a few days at the home of his mother in Arctic, R. I.

Andrew Belknap has returned to New York after spending a few days at the home of his mother on Hickory street.

Deer Burns has returned to his home on Broadway after spending a few days visiting relatives in New York city.

TAFTVILLE.

Charles Heller and Lester Pingree are wintering John P. Plante of Norwich for the holidays. Master Plante is home for the holidays. He is a student at a private school in Providence, R. I.

Hugh Brown of London, England, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pollard of Front street. Mr. Brown was in the same company of horse-drawn cars as Mr. Pollard during the World War and is here in the states to take part in the International Boxing Carnival at New York city. He is the champion light heavyweight of London.

Edward Ziemer made a business trip to Hartford Wednesday.

The first sliding accident in the village happened Wednesday morning about 11:30, when Phyllis Airey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Airey of North A street, ran into a tree while sliding down the hill next to the Congregational church. She received a bruise on her right thigh. The girl was attended by Dr. Sussler.

Ernest Bernier, while at work around the new houses on Norwich avenue, slipped and fell into some hot tar and burned his head Wednesday afternoon. He was treated by Dr. Sussler.

At a recent meeting of the Pymouth Council, K. of C., ten applications for membership were received and seven were admitted. Grand Knight H. Glauco was in the chair. Other routine business was transacted.

In Wednesday's paper in the names of the officers installed for the St. Jean Baptiste society, the names of John Boucher, financial secretary, and Isaac Boucher, his assistant, were left out.

SAYS IT FIRST AND SAYS IT LAST.

Carlyle O. Harrel, 319 Nicholson St., Norwich, Va., writes: "I'll tell anybody that plays a Hokey and Toy is all right. It's not me all the good. I said it first and I'll say it last. Thousands of bottles of the reliable remedy were bought last week by careful mothers so as to be prepared to check coughs, colds and croup at the beginning. It acts almost instantly. Once taken, another raw, irritated membrane stops tickling in throat. Lee & DeLong Co."

POLICE SEIZED NEARLY 200 QUARTS OF WHISKEY FOUND IN CELLAR

Nearly 200 quart bottles of whiskey, which, according to the label, was bottled in bond, six years old, were found Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock by the local police in the cellar of the house at No. 24 Forest street, occupied by Abraham Schanker, father of Abraham Schanker, who conducts a saloon at No. 43 West Main street. Edward Miller, 22 years of age, a brother-in-law of Mr. Schanker, who, it is said, admitted ownership of the whiskey, was arrested and was later released on bonds of $250, furnished by Mr. Schanker, Jr. Miller, who has been in this country about six weeks, having come from Russia via Poland, will appear in the city court this (Thursday) morning to answer to the charge of violating the liquor law.

The whiskey, which is valued at something over $1,500, was found in the cellar of the house by the raiding squad. The bottles were packed in four large wooden cases such as are used in packing shoes. Each case contains 48 quart bottles. The four cases were taken to the police station and placed in Chief Linton's office for safe keeping.

The raiding squad comprised Officers Charles Smith, Barney Keenan and Dan O'Neil.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE LIST FOR WEST THAMES STREET SCHOOL

The list of children of the West Thames street school who have perfect attendance records during the fall term was announced Wednesday evening by Superintendent of Schools Edward J. Graham as follows:

First grade, Miss Katherine Corcoran, teacher. Entire number of pupils, 21; neither absent, tardy nor dismissed, 21: Louis Hoffman and John Lyons.

Second grade, Miss Mary F. Good, teacher. Entire number of pupils, 37; neither absent, tardy nor dismissed, 37: John Brokowski, Edmund Burezycki, Leo Gulomb and Josephine Woodka.

Third and fourth grades, Miss Agnes McClellan, teacher. Entire number of pupils, 37; neither absent, tardy nor dismissed, 37: Herman Johnson and Bernard Gulomb.

Fifth and sixth grades, Miss Mary E. O'Sullivan, teacher. Entire number of pupils, 28; neither absent, tardy nor dismissed, 28: Teresa Bergman, Leona Comstock, Julia Cook, Herman Diernast, Ellsworth Forward, John Ramos, Harry Roswell, Anna Schultz, Mary Ulrich, Edna Weisgraber.

SUP. GRAHAM SPEAKS AT HARTFORD TODAY

Edward J. Graham, superintendent of the public schools of Norwich, will attend a conference of superintendents and supervising agents to be held today (Thursday) in the assembly chamber of the capitol in Hartford. The morning session will open at 9:15 o'clock.

Mr. Graham is to be one of the speakers on the general topic Educational Measurements and Standard Tests; How They May Assist in Supervision. Among the other speakers expected are Prof. J. C. Chapman of Yale, Supt. E. C. Williams of Southington, Supt. P. S. Camp of Stamford and J. L. Meader of Hartford.

In the afternoon there will be addresses by Commissioner Clarence H. Dempsey of Vermont and County Superintendent J. L. Kaser of Burlington county, N. J. Superintendent Kaser will talk on Consolidation and Transportation and How It Is Accomplished. His talk will be illustrated by stereopticon.

The state board of education will meet today and will be present at the conference part of the time.

Soldier's Remains Brought from France.

The body of Private John J. Lawlor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lawlor of No. 596 Grand street, Brooklyn, N. Y., and a cousin of Mrs. Rachel Zimmerman of this city, has been brought from France to his home and will be buried in St. John's cemetery, Brooklyn.

Private Lawlor died in France Oct. 26, 1918, while serving with the A. E. F. He leaves his parents, two brothers, Frank and William, and three sisters, Mary, Catherine and Irene Lawlor, of Brooklyn.

On a fruit farm near Spartansburg, S. C., fruit trees set in dynamite craters have had a yield five times as great as that of trees set in shade-dug holes in the same orchard. Cotton land worked by means of explosives, with excellent results.

ped and fell into some hot tar and burned his head Wednesday afternoon. He was treated by Dr. Sussler.

At a recent meeting of the Pymouth Council, K. of C., ten applications for membership were received and seven were admitted. Grand Knight H. Glauco was in the chair. Other routine business was transacted.

In Wednesday's paper in the names of the officers installed for the St. Jean Baptiste society, the names of John Boucher, financial secretary, and Isaac Boucher, his assistant, were left out.

new relationship to which he has been called.

The findings of the committee were unanimously approved and copies were ordered sent to the church, the pastor and to the Memorial house, Hartford. The council was constituted as follows: Norwich First, Rev. Gordon F. Bailey, pastor, Dr. Charles H. Lamb, delegate; Norwich Park, Rev. Samuel H. How, D. D., pastor, William H. Gear, delegate; Norwich United, no representation; Greenville, Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, pastor, Deacon John McWilliams, delegate; Taftville, Rev. Arthur Varley, pastor; Preston City, no representation; Jewett City, no representation, and Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Mr. Rollinson, for over five years pastor of the Hanover church, has been called to the South Congregational church of Middletown, Conn.

A miscellaneous surprise shower was given Miss Marie Bernard Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Grace Wight by twenty-five of her friends in honor of her approaching marriage to Raymond Gertrude of Norwich.

A mock marriage was a feature of the evening. Miss Mae Clendennin appeared in the role of the bride, and Miss Jennie Martin of Providence appeared as the groom. The attendants were Miss Julia Dennis as bridesmaid and Miss Helen Bowen of New Bedford was the "best man." Miss Louise Heibel rendered the wedding march.

During the evening vocal selections were rendered by Miss Grace Wight accompanied by Miss Heibel and violin solo were given by Miss Bertha Blanchette of Waterbury. A buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. Wight.

Miss Bernard received many beautiful and useful gifts, including cut glass, pyrex set, linen and aluminum ware.

TO OBSERVE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY NEXT MONTH

Mr. and Mrs. August Prodel of Norwich will observe their fortieth wedding anniversary on January 13th. Mr. and Mrs. Prodel have four children living, three daughters and one son. One daughter died in 1903. There are eleven grand children. One grandson died two years ago in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Prodel's children are Mrs. August Sawloske of Norwich, Mrs. Fred Fadick of Taftville, Miss Elizabeth Prodel, a school teacher in Northampton and Fred Prodel of Preston.

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

A committee to draft the findings of the council was appointed by the moderator, Rev. Charles A. Northrop, Rev. Arthur Varley and Deacon John McWilliams were appointed the committee and reported as follows:

The ecclesiastical council called by the church in Hanover to advise its pastor, Rev. Herbert D. Rollinson, having heard the action of both pastor and church in the matter, consents to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, to take effect as requested, on Jan. 12, 1921.

THE MANHATTAN'S

January Clearaway

Affords Wonderful Opportunities

COATS—SUITS—DRESSES—FURS

AT SHARP REDUCTIONS

ELEGANT WINTER COATS

Luxuriously trimmed with fur—others without fur—made of the season's finest materials, in the smartest styles and colors—all richly lined with silk, and warmly interlined. Prices now, much below cost.

COATS $19.50	WERE UP TO $37.50
COATS $29.50	WERE UP TO $55.00
COATS $39.50	WERE UP TO $79.50
COATS $49.50	WERE UP TO $95.00

<h3>SUITS</h3> DEEP REDUCTIONS Our entire stock grouped in two lots for their final clearance. Finest materials—Fur-Trimmed and Tailored Models, for Women and Misses. Suits $29.50 — were to $ 75.00 Suits $39.50 — were to $125.00	<h3>DRESSES</h3> GREATLY REDUCED Smart Style Dresses, in all sizes, for Women and Misses. Silks, Satins, Serges and Tricotines. The climax of Price Reductions is reached in this clearance of dresses. Dresses $18.75—were to $55.00 Dresses $28.50—were to $79.50
--	---

FURS—FUR COATS

Now Just 1/2 Price

$450.00 Plain Seal Coats	$225.00
$550.00 Trimmed Seal Coats	$275.00
$450.00 Dark Raccoon Coats	$225.00
$125.00 French Coney Coats	$ 62.50
$275.00 Mink Dye Marmot Coats	$137.50

NECKPIECES—MUFFS—PRICE

The Manhattan

121-125 MAIN STREET

THE PLAUT-CADDEN COMPANY

New Year's Demonstration and Club Sale of

NOW GOING ON SPECIAL CLUB TERMS

The Free

SEWING MACHINE

INVENTED AND PAT. BY W. C. ELLIS

$1.00 DOWN — $1.00 WEEKLY

Sews anything from Chiffon to Carpet. MR. W. C. ELLIS, Silk Artist and Expert, will make your name with beautiful Star Twist, free of charge.

$12.00 Allowance for your old Sewing Machine if you buy a Free Sewing Machine.

The Plaut-Cadden Company

(Established 1872)

135-143 Main Street

Norwich, Conn.

Come In For Particulars